You are part of a trusted circle of women who believe in the power and impact of every woman.

We are a global community of woman of all ages and backgrounds, working together to activate our purpose and passion at work, in our communities and in our personal lives. This is our HUB space to forge valuable connections to explore ideas, issues, and opportunities that matter most to us.

The Great Dames Commitment

I believe there is a Great Dame in every woman, no matter her age or background. I define my 'Great Damentness' in my own way.

I believe sharing our stories and wisdom broadens perspectives and helps us find strength and support.

I believe in respecting myself and others.

I believe in being compassionate, welcoming, and encouraging.

I believe in using my voice to empower equity, diversity, and inclusion.

I believe in action. I am committed to sharing resources and breaking barriers for women and girls to make a difference in their own lives and for their families and communities.

I believe in the magic, fun, and wonder that happens when Great Dames come together. Some people call it sisterhood, some call it friendship. We call it being a Great Dame.
